What do I need to do change roommates to my lease?

Your new roommate must fill out an application, pay the application fee and be approved to reside in your apartment. You will be charged a $100 fee to change the lease agreement.

What if I need to break my Lease?

We understand that sometimes it is necessary. You must contact the office and present in writing your intentions to break your lease, explaining when you will be completely out of the apartment. Assuming we are able to re-rent the property right away and not lose any rent, we will only charge a $100 fee to break your lease agreement. Until the apartment is re-rented or lease expires, you will be responsible for the monthly rent. Any additional fees (i.e. advertising or special move in discounts offered, etc.) to re-rent your apartment will be additional charge to you. While we will advertise the apartment on our available list, it will be up to the tenant to give us the access to show the apartment to the potential new tenant.

Please note that subleasing is a violation of your lease agreement.

What do I do if I have a maintenance request?

If you have a maintenance request, please enter all online at your tenant portal http://www.la-management.com/tenants/maintenance\_requests. If it is after hour emergency call the emergency number and be sure to include your address, including unit number, your phone number, and a brief description of what the problem is. Once the request has been made you automatically give us permission to enter your apartment to fix this problem whether you are home or not.

How do I renew my lease?

You will receive a renewal notice approximately 60 days prior to your lease expiration date. We require a minimum 45 days prior to your lease expiration date of your intentions. If you do not inform us of your plans to move, your lease will auto renew itself for another term stated in the renewal notice.

When will I receive my Security Deposit Refund?

The landlord has 30 days to return your Security Deposit after lease ends. However, our goal is to send it within a couple of weeks after you vacate your apartment.
